Our Ideas and Aims

The European Route of Reformation is the reflection of centuries of histories, when movements of Christianity all around Europe shared the will to change the institutions and break the status quo.

We are a transnational route, built on participation of churches, associations, public institutions and other stakeholders. We are looking for new partners to enrich our network and to capitalize on tourism.

As an open and tolerant network, we combine the diverse aspects of the Reformation across national boundaries: We value differences and the plurality of the history of the Reformation in our regions, cultures and societies all over Europe. At the same time, we are united under the Routes of Reformation, which enhances our common heritage and values, standing out as a unique contribution to tourism and the development of our territories.

We provide a diverse, spiritual and unique experience in all territories involved, with innovative and sustainable tourism, while communicating our route in a contemporary way.
